It is also known as the Old Market or Gross Markt. Perhaps the most well known attraction in the city, the Bell Tower or Belfry is on the square. The north side of the square is bordered by traditional Flemish gable-roofed houses. On the east side of the square is the Provincial Court house, a 19th century post office building and historic buildings with a first floor loggia. Houses on the west side include the Bouchoute house with a 15th century screen wall; this is the oldest house in the city. At the center of the square is a statue of Jan Breydel and Pieter de Coninck, two local heroes from the 1302 resistance movement. The statue was erected in 1887.
